Bonds-Government bonds were quiet and heavy, the 4s being a shade lower. State bonds were dell and steady. There was an increased bus ness in railroad bonds, as well as an increase in strength. The Houston and Texas issues were conspicuous in advances, while the st. Faul, C. and P division as and terminals, Eric seconds ex-compon, and New Jersey Central de bentures were conspicuous for activi-ty. The latter are being bought, it is reported, by people having private in-formation that the back coupons will be paid. Houston and Texas general mortgage advanced 21 to 56, the seconds 34 to 804: the western division firsts, compon off, 35 to 895, and the main line firsts, compon off, 15 to 1074.
